

Kinetic Capital Mgt

Frequently Asked Questions

What types of loan products do you offer?

Answer: We offer business loan type products; we can currently connect your business to any type of business loan type product, however we focus in general on term loans, lines of credit, working capital, SBA loans, real estate etc.

We connect businesses to loan type products to advantage opportunities and defeat challenges.

What are your rates?

Answer: There are different rates according to the different products available. Credit score may not disqualify a business from receiving offers for a loan, however the rate you receive, is often tied to many factors that include your credit scores. Accordingly, at this time, we have a product we can Term2, with rates that begin at 5.49%.

What are the largest loan amounts?

Answer: Working Capital products typically can fund in areas close to $4–5 million. Real estate, new construction and various out of network term loans, can exceed in upwards of 8–9 figures; enquire personally and an advisor will, white gloves, will have out remote brokers work your file.

To be continued...